

GETTING HELP AFTER A SEXUAL ASSAULT IN THE ANIAK AREA

1

If you have been sexually assaulted in the last seven (7) days and want to report to law enforcement, please call Alaska State Troopers Aniak Post at 907-675-4398.

To ask a Tundra Women's Coalition advocate about what your options are or to learn more about the process, call TWC at 1-800-478-7799.

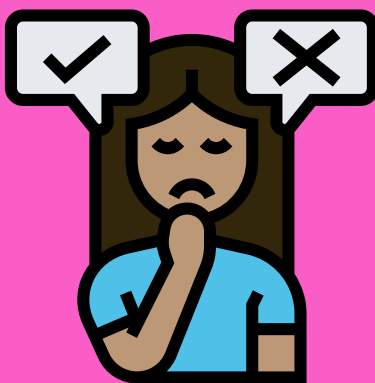

To be seen in Aniak is based on provider availability and flight routing (i.e. If coming from a village and your flight routing requires you to stop in Bethel, you will be seen in Bethel for the medical-forensic exam.)

2

Decide if you want to report to law enforcement. It is 100% your decision whether or not to report to the Alaska State Troopers if you are 18 years of age or older.

You may request for the team to hold your kit and make an anonymous report, but you have the right to report any time within the statute of limitations, which is seven (7) days for evidence collection.

3

For evidence collection ("evidence kit"), in case you decide to report to the Alaska State Troopers, try to avoid the following things:

- Showering
- Taking a maqi (steam)
- Urinating or having a bowel movement
- Eating/drinking or smoking
- Chewing gum or iqmi
- Brushing teeth or washing/changing clothes

DO bring your clothes, including underwear, with you to the exam.

4

Alaska State Troopers or TWC will arrange for when you will go to the Aniak SRC or to Bethel for a SART exam.

The exam will be conducted after normal business hours if in Aniak.

You will have the opportunity to have all your questions answered by a medical provider and an advocate before the exam begins.

5

If you choose to receive free STI/HIV and pregnancy prevention medications, the nurse/provider will run some lab tests to make sure it is safe for you to take these medications.

You will also receive referrals for follow-up care.

6

Receive ongoing support and connection to resources.

If you choose, the Tundra Women's Coalition will continue to support you in any way that you want and can connect you to basic resources, educational, legal, and/or social services.

We are here to talk any time!
